

Jake Stahl Ousted as Manager of Chicago Red Sox

STAHL IS RELEASED BY JIMMIE M'ALEER

Leader of World's Champion Red Sox Deposed.
Catcher William Carrigan Will Succeed
Redoubtable Jake—Wanted Playing Manager.

Chicago, July 15.—"Jake" Garland Stahl was ousted as manager of the Boston Americans to-day by James M'Alister, president of the club. Though differences were the rumored cause of Stahl's release, both manager and president insisted that the demand of the stockholders for a "playing manager" was the motive. To-morrow, William Carrigan will assume charge of the team.

Stahl's release was unconditional, and he will give up baseball as a business, although retaining his Red Sox stock, devoting his time in the future to his banking business in Chicago. He has played four games this season, an injured foot keeping him out of the field. He managed the team from the bench.

Stahl was induced by M'Alister to return to the Boston team and assume the management at the beginning of the 1912 season, soon after M'Alister became president.

No Surprise in Boston.
Boston, July 15.—The announcement that Manager "Jake" Stahl, of the Boston Americans, would sever his connection with the team he led to a world's championship last season was not unexpected here. The basis of the disagreement between President James M. M'Alister, of the Boston club, and Manager Stahl, according to some, was the reported desire of Stahl to supplant Carrigan as president, of which Stahl is understood to have disclaimed all knowledge.

Another factor was Stahl's inability to play because of an injury to his foot. M'Alister is understood to have practically ordered an operation on Stahl's foot, which was successfully performed more than a month ago, but the manager never recovered sufficiently to resume his position.

It is estimated that with Stahl's salary as player-manager of $10,000, his player's share of the world's receipts and his dividend on club stock, he cleared $25,000 last year.

"Bip" Carrigan, who succeeds Stahl, has a reputation as one of the leading baseball strategists among active players.

TIMES DISPATCH TEAM WINS AGAIN

The Richmond Virginia baseball team of the Newspaper League met defeat yesterday in Broad Street Park at the hands of the fast Times-Dispatch team. The score was 9 to 4.

In the first frame, with one man on base, Pollard, for the Virginians, drove the ball to the left-field fence for a home run.

This put the Virginians two runs in the lead, but the Times boys overcame this and doubled it in the fourth. It happened in this manner: Wittkamp bunted and was safe. "Hooks" Bucher did likewise. Lohman bunted also. Then "Plug Ugly" Amos, the hefty catcher for the T-D boys gave a repetition of Pollard's stunt but rested at third. He stole home, however, and the score stood, T-D, 4; Virginians, 2. Later in the game the Virginians secured two more tallies. The T-D lads continued to heap up the score till five more runs were made. The game finished 9 to 4 in favor of The Times-Dispatch.

The batting of Pollard and Amos featured the game. Score:

TARS PROFIT BY ROANOKE ERRORS

Many Boots Give Norfolk Four Runs and Game in Tenth Inning.

Roanoke, Va., July 15.—In ten innings, with Roanoke kicking the ball all over the field, the Tars won. It was a hot game all the way through, Roanoke scoring in the first and Norfolk in the second. In the ninth, with two down, Goldby singled to right, scoring Irmischer with the tying run, but in the tenth Roanoke made five errors and gave the Tars four runs. Weeder was in fine form and was very effective. Tolson, too, was in fine fettle, and with perfect work behind him he would have shut out the Tars. Whitcraft was injured scoring in the second, and was forced out of the game, but his injury is not serious. Score:

WILLIAM H. HEER LEADS SHOOTERS

Wilmington, Del., July 15.—Making a perfect score in the 150 targets on to-day's program of the eighth annual Eastern handicap shoot, William H. Heer, of Guthrie, Okla., led the field of nearly 300 contestants at the close of the day's events. He broke 99 in a possible 100 yesterday, and has an unfinished run of 227 straight breaks to his credit.

The national amateur championship target shot, Bart Lewis, of Auburn, Ill., was high gun among the amateurs, and tied with Charles G. Spencer, a professional from St. Louis, for second place, with 148 breaks. George L. Lyon, of Durham, N. C., national amateur double target champion, took second place among the amateurs with 146 breaks.

Forbes & Co. Play Duplex Team.

The following players have been signed up by William P. Forbes and compose the team that will represent the Duplex & Co. They will meet the Norfolk team at Broad Street Park this afternoon. Here is the lineup:

Slaughter, pitcher; Martin, pitcher; Koss, catcher; Hockaday, second base; Van Diver, third base; Lumpkin, shortstop; Fleischman, first base; McCann, Boyd and Williams, utility men. All of the players are well known and have played on the best amateur teams in Richmond. They will make a strong team and ought to make a splendid showing this season. On Saturday the Forbes & Co. team will go to Petersburg and play the Moose team of that city.
